

FEEDBACK FROM IKA DC MEETING 3 AUGUST 2010

- ✚ 2010 African Kurash Championships will take place in Maputo – Mozambique on 17 and 18 September. During this event the contract between the IKA and COJA (Organizing committee for the All Africa Games) for participating in the games as an official demonstration sport will be signed.
- ✚ On 1 to 3 October 2010 a meeting will take place in Bordeaux – France to form a Kurash union of all French speaking nations in the world. This will result in more collaboration between these countries. Countries will still fall under the relevant continental unions. A Kurash competition will take place on 2 October.
- ✚ The Junior Kurash World Championships for 2010 will take place in Delhi – India in December 2010. Information and regulations will be available soon. IKA and Continental meetings will also take place during this event.
- ✚ A Kurash World Championship for Cadets (16 years and younger) is planned for 2011. This event is provisionally scheduled for Thessalonica in Greece during April 2011.
- ✚ The 2011 Senior Kurash World Championships will take place in South Africa during October or November. The venue will be Vanderbijlpark – a city about 80 km south of Johannesburg.
- ✚ Countries are urged to set up federation websites with related information about their activities and tournaments.
